

Multimedia Journalist - KTUU Anchorage

Gray Television supports local community interests by providing quality television broadcasting and exceptional service in each market we serve. We own and operate leading media outlets in over 50 markets throughout the country – all delivering the news, weather, sports and entertainment that millions of our neighbors count on every day. We are an unmatched broadcast pioneer that keeps getting bigger and better.

We constantly strive for excellence. Through upgrading to the latest technology and seeking new ways to stay on top in our markets, we focus on training and development of the best and brightest employees in the business.

KTUU-TV is an NBC-affiliated television station based in Anchorage, Alaska. KTUU-TV's early beginnings date back to 1953. Over the ensuing decades, the station has built a reputation of excellence as Alaska's most watched news source, producing 19.5-hours of news and sports content each week on television. Online, KTUU.com has become a digital news leader, and Channel 2's mobile News and Weather applications are on the leading edge of mobile journalism in Alaska. Strong reach and brand loyalty are augmented by added distribution to the state's capital and more than 244 rural communities throughout Alaska. KTUU-TV also operates KYES, Channel 5 and Justice Network.

Multimedia Journalists are responsible for developing, investigating, writing, shooting, reporting and editing stories of interest. Must generate story and source contacts, and enterprise stories on a daily basis. Delivers reports of high visual and ethical standards, using creative ideas and live-news capabilities. Coverage is on-air, live or taped and on-line. Multimedia Journalists may also be called upon to fill-in as on-air news anchors or producers, when needed.

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

- Excellent live reporting skills required, ability to ad-lib during breaking news
- Ability to do active and involved live shots and stand-ups
- Strong on-camera presentation skills required
- Excellent interview and communication skills
- Must be able to write in a clear, concise, and conversational manner
- Strong research skills, including the ability to navigate online search engines and use Social Media daily
- Strong initiative and attention to detail is required
- Must enterprise hard-news, research-based stories at daily news meetings
- Basic computer knowledge including newsroom software (ENPS), Microsoft applications and Internet use
- Ability to work well with others and independently with limited supervision

QUALIFICATIONS

- College degree is required. Journalism or related field is preferred.
- Must hold a valid driver's license and a good driving record
- Ability to shoot/edit video, ability to work independently as a "one man band"
- Meet tight deadlines and work well under pressure
- Must have the desire to be at work during big breaking news, weather coverage and special events

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: Please apply online at www.gray.tv/applynow

Gray Television provides equal employment opportunities (EEO) to all employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or genetics. In addition to federal law requirements, Gray Television complies with applicable state and local laws governing nondiscrimination in employment in every location in which the company has facilities. This policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including recruiting, hiring, placement, promotion, termination, layoff, recall, transfer, leaves of absence, compensation and training.

Gray Television expressly prohibits any form of workplace harassment based on race, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, age, genetic information, disability, or veteran status. Improper interference with the ability of KTUU's employees to perform their job duties may result in discipline up to and including discharge.