

Koahnic Broadcast Corporation Seeks Climate Desk Producer to Lead Multimedia Project

Koahnic Broadcast Corporation (KBC) is looking for an experienced media producer to lead a multimedia programming project in a full-time, temporary position (through June 2021). Application Deadline is December 18, 2019.

The KBC Climate Desk Producer will create, curate, and manage production of news stories and features about Alaska Native communities and individuals responding to the impacts of climate change.

Job duties will include leading social media efforts and impact measurement for the project, and working effectively with multiple stakeholders and audiences.

KBC's programs and services include KNBA 90.3, NV1, The RIVR station, Native America Calling and National Native News. KBC brings Native journalism, public affairs, and cultural programs to listeners throughout Alaska and nationwide.

For full job description, go to www.knba.org

To apply, send a cover letter, work sample, and resume via U.S. Mail to:

Human Resources

KNBA

3600 San Jeronimo Dr., Suite 480

Anchorage, AK 99508

Applicants may also submit materials via email to HR@knba.org

KBC is an Equal Opportunity Employer