Dillingham City School District/Radio Station KDLG

Position Announcement

Host/Reporter

Public radio station KDLG has an opening for a Host/Reporter.

The duty of the Host/Reporter includes anchoring newscasts, gathering, writing and producing news stories. This includes both hard news and features. Must meet daily and weekly deadlines.

Radio station KDLG lies in the heart of beautiful Bristol Bay, the sockeye salmon capital of the world. KDLG is owned by the Dillingham City School District and serves southwest Alaska communities. Dillingham is a commercial fishing community with a yearly population of 2,500. It is accessible only by air, about 300 miles SW of Anchorage. The town has a population that is fifty percent Alaska Native and is the hub for a number of Native villages in the region. The mountains lakes and rivers in the region make it one of the premier destinations for hunters, fishermen and other outdoor enthusiasts.

We are looking for an adventurous candidate with one year of experience in radio journalism or equivalent work. Salary is competitive with an excellent retirement program and benefits. To apply, send a letter of interest, resume, three audio clips and three references to Sam Gardner, General Manager KDLG Radio via email sam@kdlg.org.

Position Open Until Filled. Apply online at https://www.dlgsd.org/page/career

KDLG is an Equal Opportunity Employer

KDLG is licensed to the Dillingham City Schools the successful applicant will have full medical/dental health plan and participate in the state of Alaska Public Employees Retirement program.